

Abstract

The title of this dissertation is: The impact of the Grammatical Meaning in the Producing of Branches on Assets by Chérif At-Tlemçani

This work is composed of an introduction, a preface and three chapters. The introduction is about the significance of the work, the rationale, the objectives of the study and some previous related works, and then we mentioned the approach and the methodology of this thesis.

In the preface we explained the title of this research and we defined the main parts of the study (The grammatical meaning its definition and the sign that help to define it , and the difference between it and conjugation, the meaning of the producing of branches on assets, and the main works that dealt with it.

In the first chapter we dealt with the biography of Chérif At-Tlemçani, his era, where he lived, his intellectual Status, his impact, his books and his fatwas.

The second chapter is about Chérif At-Tlemçani's book "Access to the building branches on key assets", we started this chapter by the Documentation of this book; the author's style in this book then the impact of this book.

Finally, in the third chapter we discussed The impact of the Grammatical Meaning in the Producing of Branches on Assets by Chérif At-Tlemçani - Case of his book "El Meftah" or "The Key". In this chapter we dealt with the grammatical meaning and its effect on getting the jurisprudence in Chérif At-Tlemçani's book "Access to the building branches on key assets", with reference to the interaction between the Islamic sciences and Grammar.

The last part is a general conclusion drawn to conclude the main findings of this dissertation, we also added some appendices (Quranic verses, intellectuals, poetic verses and the references).